How Does a Subjective Point of View Affect the Story

Unlike an omniscient or all-knowing point of view, in which the author can tap into the minds of multiple characters at the same time, the subjective point of view significantly limits an author s flexibility when it comes to the chronology of events. A subjective point of view also calls into question the reliability of the narrator, especially if he or she is untrustworthy, biased, or suffering from a mental disability.
